Indian Spice

What comes to mind when you think “India”? Vibrant colours, foot-tapping song-and-dance numbers, the glamour and glitz of Bollywood, over-the-top celebrations, the extreme flavours, the different cultures, all-in-all, the diversity.

The people, the cultures, the styles, the mix, the tradition, everything is a part of the country. Yes, the world has influenced India; India has also influenced the world. Show us what you think of your country! If you think “style” can be summed up by sashaying down the ramp in shorts, a sari blouse, a bright and dressy dupatta, bouffant hair, knee-length boots, and bridal bindis, go ahead and do it! If you think today's dance culture is Bhangra moves to Latin music, the floor is yours! If you think remixing a classical song and tuning it to rock music is your thing, show us! It's all about your view of Today's India. It's all about Celebrating India as it is today. So here's to India, here's to celebrating the Indian Spice!
